

Bangkok Metropolitan Administration Commitment for Waste Utilization

The City of Bangkok is committed to address the mounting challenges of urbanization; its impact on the environment, society and economy and take a leading role in promoting environmental stewardship, building mutual support and cooperation with cities in Asia Pacific region. As a concrete demonstration of this commitment, by the year 2011, the City of Bangkok will increasing the amount waste utilization by 30 percent.

Implementation of KIN5 commitments

- Form a committee to specify guidelines and supervise project implementation
- To provide location for district offices for establishing substations and recycle center
- Establish community waste reduction management centers to educate teachers, students and nearby communities
- Organize activities to promote waste recycling, segregation such as solid waste bank, market fairs and recyclable waste donation
- Publicize through media such as brochure, handout, newspaper, advertising board, TV, radio and exhibition.

Implementation of KIN5 commitments (Cont.)

- Provide people with community waste segregation handbooks for understanding and proper segregation.
- Provide training for community representatives from all 50 district offices.
- Hold activities promoting producing liquid fertilizer and granulated fertilizer from biodegradable wastes.
- Establish and expand more environment networks for waste management among communities and composting center
- Stimulate people accountability and cooperation with BMA to segregate usable waste for recycling.

BMA Environmental Vision

Vision : “Recycling and Recovery of Usable Waste”

- Promotion Recycling and Recovery of Usable Waste by

30 percent in the year 2011

Activities:

Establish and expand more environment networks for waste management among communities and district composting center